NOTICE.

NECESSITY compels me to make further application to all those who are indebted to the trustees of the Richmond Academy, by sales of lottery tickets of the first and second class and voluntary subscriptions, and all such are hereby requested to make payment to the subscriber to enable the building committee to pay all arrears for work done, and to procure materials this winter in order to proceed with the work next spring, it being the education of our rising progeny, which the Academy attaches them to reputation and independence. I have undertaken the collection by agreement with John Brackenbrough and William W. Henning, Esqrs. the other members of the committee appointed by a board of trustees. As the building of the Academy has progressed considerably, I flatter myself there will be but little trouble in obtaining the money for the purpose of carrying into effect so laudable an institution.
